- As the parent/guardian of the student entering this essay contest, I grant permission for Lompoc Odd Fellows to allow this entry into the $1,000 Essay Contest posted on the LompocOddFellows.com website.
- I/we (the parent/guardian and the student entering) have read the rules and notices and they are understood without the need for any further clarifications. If I/we enter via the website, we are still required to print this form, sign it, take a picture (or scan it) and then upload the image of this form.
- I/we also grant permission for the publishing (print or electronic/web) of the essay (in whole or part) in the media (television/newspaper news sources or school publications) and/or by the Lompoc Odd Fellows (and affiliated lodges such as the California Grand Lodge or the national Sovereign Grand Lodge).
- As the parent/guardian of the student entering this essay contest, I separately grant additional permission to use the image of the entrant provided with the essay and for it to be distributed along with the essay for publishing/distribution.

The following items are included with this entry: *

- The entry form you printed, completed and signed and then scanned for upload.
- Original essay between 300–1,000 words in length authored by the student in RTF or PDF format or also scanned (please do not send Word documents).
- Digital photo file (or scanned image) for which permission is granted for use to accompany essay (either digital file uploaded here or a printed picture to be mailed in with essay).
- Scanned documentation provided by a teacher at the student's school (on school letterhead and CC'd to the head of the school and the school board) that the student read the essay aloud to a group and its size.
- Scanned statement by the parent/guardian and/or student promoting the students entry in the contest on social media (by student and/or parent/guardian) and the links to verify the following/likes/favorites/sharing to be tallied on May 31, 2019.
